

HR HEALTH CHECK

Self Assessment for business leaders

Your Results Are In

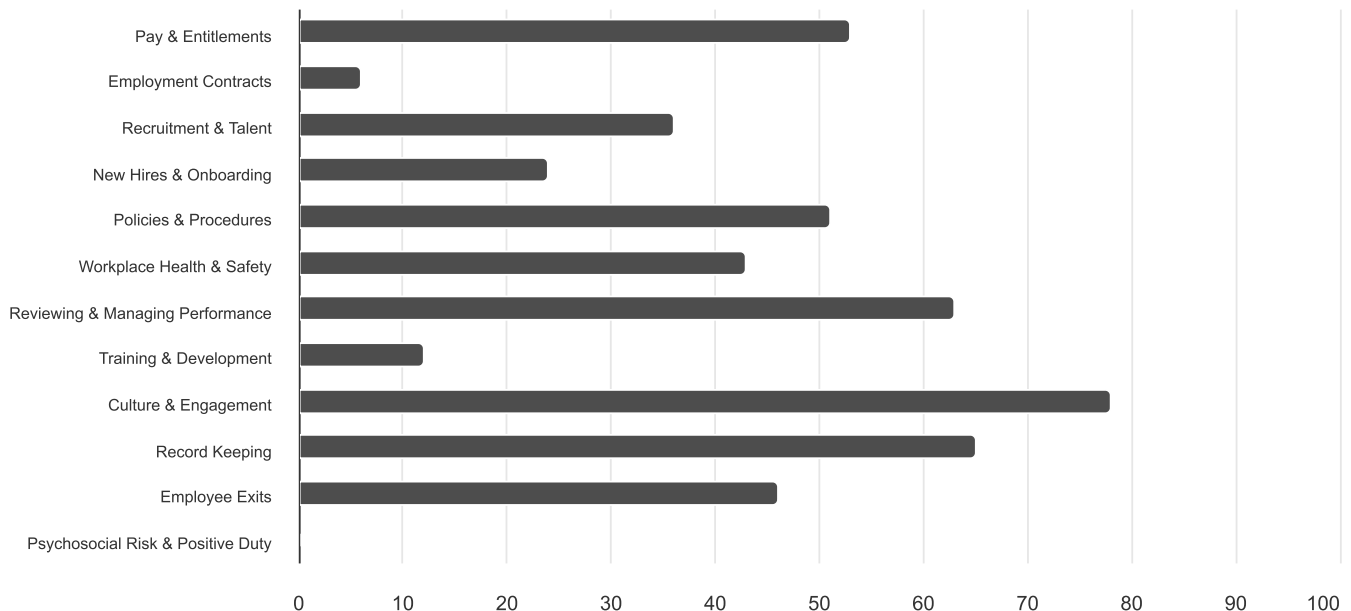

Thank you for completing DreamStoneHR's HR Health Check.

Here's a quick snapshot of your results below.

For a deeper dive, simply click the PDF icon to view your full report and tailored recommendations.

Scores:

Pay & Entitlements:	53%
Employment Contracts:	6%
Recruitment & Talent:	36%
New Hires & Onboarding:	24%
Policies & Procedures:	51%
Workplace Health & Safety:	43%
Reviewing & Managing Performance:	63%
Training & Development:	12%
Culture & Engagement:	78%
Record Keeping:	65%
Employee Exits:	46%
Psychosocial Risk & Positive Duty:	0%
Overall Score:	47%

If you would like to discuss this Health Check, how we can assist you in achieving compliance or reaching best practice across any or all aspects of Human Resources, please contact us at info@dreamstonehr.com.au or (02) 8320 9320.

Questions and Responses

How familiar are you with the Fair Work Act and Modern Awards?

Your Response: 5

Enter your phone number

Your Response: 0404463382

Enter your company name

Your Response: DreamStoneHR

How comfortable are you with the National Employment Standards and how they apply to your employees?

Your Response: 9

How confident are you that each of your employees is covered by the correct Modern Award, including the correct Award classification and level? (Keeping in mind that different Modern Awards may apply to different occupations within the same business).

Your Response: 7

Are you aware that if you pay above the Award, other conditions and entitlements within the Award are still applicable?

Your Response: I thought if I paid above the Award this meant I didn't need to worry about other Award conditions

Each Award will determine minimum rates of pay, penalty rates, hours of work, overtime, meal breaks, and other statutory entitlements. How confident are you that you are paying in line with the Award requirements for these statutory entitlements?

Your Response: I am aware of the minimum rates of pay and I am compliant however other entitlements need a review

How would you rate your compliance with Modern Award allowances?

Your Response: I pay a flat hourly rate that I believe is enough to cover all allowances

How well do you believe you understand the differences between full time, part time and casual employment, including probation, leave, and termination requirements?

Your Response: 4

Are you aware of your obligations regarding casual employees' rights to request permanent employment (casual conversion) under the new legislation?

Your Response: Yes, but this does not apply to our business as we do not have casual staff or fall within the exemption criteria.

Position Descriptions provide an overview of roles, including duties, inherent requirements, responsibilities, reporting lines, and often key performance indicators. Position Descriptions can also assist in performance management activities.

From the below, choose all that apply.

Your Response: Only some staff have Position Descriptions, or the ones in place are not comprehensive

Are you comfortable that your job advertisements appropriately reflect role requirements, and relate directly to the Position Description?

Your Response: No

How would you rate your organisation's recruitment and interview practices?

Your Response: 9

Interviews are an opportunity for both the business and candidate to see if they are a good fit together. It's important to remember that during an interview, you are also selling your business to candidates, and that compliance measures are important for transparency, performance management and freedom of information (FOI) purposes.

Select all options from the below that apply to your interview process.

Your Response: Unsuccessful shortlisted applicants who were interviewed receive a phone call

Are all staff issued with an Employment Agreement / Contract?

Your Response: No

Do your Employment Agreements contain any or all of the below (please check all that apply):

Your Response: Wages / Salary, inclusions and an expectation of reasonable overtime

Do you issue the Fair Work Information Statement to new staff?

Your Response: No

Do you issue the Casual Employment Information Statement to casual staff?

Your Response: No

Do you know the difference between an employee and a contractor, and understand the implications of 'sham contracting'?

Your Response: Yes

Do you undertake work rights / visa entitlement verification for any staff without Australian citizenship?

Your Response: Yes

If any of your employees are paid a flat rate or annual salary, are the arrangements you pay them better than what the employee/s would be entitled to if you paid as per the Award hourly rate and other applicable entitlements?

Your Response: 8

With your annual salaried/flat rate employees do you have an annualised salary agreement in place which shows your employees how their annual salary (or flat rate) is calculated?

Your Response: I tell staff what they would be paid under the Award and compare it to what their annual salary is that I pay them, but that is all

Do your staff complete timesheets?

Your Response: Staff document their hours but not their breaks

Are you issuing a payslip to each staff member within one working day after their pay is processed?

Your Response: No

Do your payslips separate base pay, allowances, overtime and penalty rates?

Your Response: No

Are you confident that your pay arrangements (weekly, fortnightly, monthly) and day of pay (Mon-Fri) comply with the Award?

Your Response: No

If you make a deduction from an employees pay, do you obtain their approval in writing prior to the deduction?
(Eg. in the case of an overpayment or employee repaying an amount the employer paid on their behalf)

Your Response: We have employees sign / approve all deductions prior to processing

Do you have part time employees whose hours change from week to week? Are you aware of and complying with overtime payments for these employees?

Your Response: 9

How confident are you that your employee records are complete, including evidence of all pay deductions, variations, leave applications, licenses and legislative requirements?

Your Response: 9

How well do you believe you understand your obligations around excessive leave accruals, encouraging taking of leave, and leave payouts for excessive leave (not including at termination)?

Your Response: 7

Are you paying leave loading as appropriate under the Award? If you have included this loading into a salary or hourly amount, is that clear in the contract?

Your Response: No

When new employees start with your business, what information and training is provided? Please choose all that apply.

Your Response: Bullying & Harassment

Are variation letters issued when changes are made to employment agreements? ie - higher duties, change of hours, reporting lines.

Your Response: No

Policies and procedures help to ensure staff and managers know what is expected of them, how to conduct themselves in certain situations, and what happens when rules are not followed. Meaningful policies are relevant and accessible.

How comprehensive do you believe your employment relations policies are within your business?

Your Response: 6

Do staff acknowledge their acceptance of policies in writing, and any changes to them?

Your Response: No

Are policies consistently followed by staff, and enforced by management?

Your Response: 5

How well do you feel you know the requirements around probation and qualifying periods, including terminations and extensions?

Your Response: 6

Are formal performance reviews undertaken and documented?

Your Response: No

Do you maintain a record of leave entitlements, and make them accessible to employees?

Your Response: Yes

Do you believe you have a good understanding of what constitutes a genuine redundancy?

Your Response: Yes

How prepared do you feel your business is to undertake workplace consultation for major changes?

Your Response: 8

If you are a small business of under 15 employees, do you have a good understanding of how redundancies and the Small Business Dismissal Code apply to your business?

Your Response: We are under 15 staff and do not have a good understanding of how to use these provisions

Do you have Workers Compensation Insurance?

Your Response: No

How well do you understand what to do in the event of a staff injury and worker's compensation claim?

Your Response: 8

Do you have policies and procedures in place around evacuation in the event of fire or other emergency?

Your Response: No

Are there an adequate number of people training in First Aid / CPR for your business?

Your Response: No

If you shut down over the Christmas / New Year period, are you aware of the requirements under the relevant Award/s for notice and forced leave?

Your Response: No

Do you know what notice and documentation is required upon termination?

Your Response: Yes

Do you review employee wages annually to ensure they are competitive and aligned with performance?

Your Response: Yes

How comfortable are you with your staff turnover?

Your Response: 9

Do you have social functions and / or celebrate events (ie birthdays, business success)?

Your Response: No

How would you rate your business in terms of employee wellbeing and culture?

Your Response: 9

Do you know what an Individual Flexibility Arrangement is under the relevant Award, and how to implement one?

Your Response: 4

Do you know what is considered a General Protection under the Fair Work Act, and how to handle a claim?

Your Response: No

How confident are you in addressing serious misconduct, such as theft, fraud, assault, intoxication in the workplace, sexual harassment or blatant breach of health and safety rules?

Your Response: 7

How confident are you in addressing performance management issues, including a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)?

Your Response: 7

How confident are you managing conduct issues, such as regular lateness, bad language, poor presentation or misuse of company equipment?

Your Response: 7

Would you know what to do in the event of a sexual harassment claim at work, or at a work function?

Your Response: No

Do you have a good understanding of Family and Domestic Violence Leave provisions, and what you can do to assist staff experiencing domestic violence?

Your Response: 7

Are you aware if there is a state Portable Long Service Leave (PLSL) requirement for your industry, and how to use it? Are you confident you can calculate long service leave for staff whether they are affected by PLSL or not?

Your Response: 6

How does your business approach training and development? Please select all that apply.

Your Response: We train staff when they first commence, but not very much thereafter

Do you participate in campaigns and initiatives to encourage awareness of health and safety, mental health, domestic violence and other important issues?

Your Response: RUOK? Day

How well would your business respond to the inappropriate use of alcohol or drugs in the workplace? Do you have policies, procedures and training in place to address these concerns?

Your Response: 7

Do your staff have access to an Employee Assistance Program (EAP)? How equipped do you believe your business is to handle a mental health concern in the workplace?

Your Response: 6

Do you understand the difference between an unfair dismissal claim and adverse action?

Your Response: No

How confident are you that you could appropriately address an unfair dismissal claim?

Your Response: 7

You have completed your HR Health Check. Prior to submitting your results, please take a moment to let us know any feedback you have about this assessment, or if it made you consider any areas of your HR performance that you hadn't previously. (Optional)

Your Response:

No Response

Created with Agolix